

SPELLING BEES

A Competitive Word Search in a Garden

Traverse a garden as bees collecting letters to turn them into words.

Find words among adjacent letters on petals. Rotate flowers to help guide your bee onto the best path.

- The board is a garden of letters
- Each player moves their bee
- Your bee must follow a path of letters on adjacent petals that form a word.
- The flowers can be moved and rotated to help the bee make a word.
- Score your word on the built-in scoring track
- Play until a preset score is exceeded.
